● TOOWOOMBA school leavers considering a legal career can take part in a new course offering practical and innovative instruction from experienced lawyers.

National plaintiff law firm Shine Lawyers has launched a course which will provide participants with guidance from lawyers and educators on strategies for success in becoming a legal support professional.

The six-day course will be run at a residential facility in Toowoomba during January and February next year.

Anyone interested in applying for the course can call 4699 4608 or visit www.shinecentreoflearning.com.au
